The docket for the coming term of circuit court is larger than usual. Both Petit and grand jury is summoned for the first day.

If any one can furnish this office with a copy of the News containing the war history of Col. Frank Wolford it would be gladly received.

Some of our tobacco growers of this county are complaining of the ravages of the worm. They say that they are destroying the late tobacco.

Ill advised girl, eighteen years old, of Paducah, went to Louisville seeking employment. She returned in a week a wiser if not a better girl.

The attention of our readers is called to the address of Hon. E. A. Gullion, candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, published elsewhere in this paper.

Eld. J. Q. Montgomery is conducting a series of meetings at Shiloh Church. He is having good attendance and preaching interesting sermons.

Mr. T. E. Paul has sent an Irish potato vine to this office measuring seven feet. The man who brought it said it was about the shortest in the patch.

From now until next June Columbia will be alive with students, as both institutions expect full attendance. Last year over 500 pupils were in school here.

There are only three old Mexican soldiers yet living in Adair county—John Eubank, aged 76; Wesley Sexton, 78 and James Campbell, 78.

There is an abundance of work for the coming grand jury. If witnesses can be secured there will be many more indictments than usual.

NOTICE TO TAX PAVERS.

I will this week begin to wind up for all taxes unpaid for the year 1906.

I have advertised and filled appointments in each magisterial District of the County as required by law, and will now call on you for the last time without a levy. No person is to be passed this time with a promise.

This is a matter of business and I propose to treat it as such.

Any person taking this as a joke can judge about that when called upon the next time.

W. B. PATTERSON, S. A. C. Aug. 6 1906.

E. M. Burton was held over for killing James Dooley, his bond being fixed at three thousand dollars, which the accused readily gave.

Next Friday night will be the regular election of officers in Columbia Chapter, No. 7, Royal Arch Masons. All Companions are urgently requested to be present.

The Standard Lumber Company, of Buffalo, New York, will start their mill here the first of next week. There are at this time between three and four hundred logs on the yard. Logs are arriving at the rate of twenty-five per day. This is a great enterprise and will pay out many thousands of dollars to Adair county.

Six months ago we heard that nearly all the best timber in Adair county had been cut. For four weeks, logs, at the rate of twenty-five or thirty per day, have been hauled through town en route to the mills located this side of the bridge. Mill men, who have recently been over the county, say there is yet an abundance of timber.

Mr. S. D. Barbee returned from Elida, New Mexico, last Saturday night. He filed a claim and perhaps has purchased three lots and a dwelling. Mr. R. M. Grissom being his partner in this transaction. He thinks the territory around Elida, when developed, will be a good farming country. The crops last year were reasonably good, but this year they are short. He says with one or two exceptions the Adair County people are satisfied.

It should be very gratifying to the management of the Burkesville Fair and the people of Cumberland county generally, to know that everybody from this section speak in the highest terms of the very excellent order that prevailed during the entire exhibition. It is rarely the case that in a crowd of five or six thousand people there are not some disturbances, but at Burkesville Fair everything was serene from start to finish.
